AD seating

Steelcase

Excellent value in task seating

The AD is an entry-level task chair that offers a crisp blend of style and adjustable functionality to meet individual users needs of comfort and support, while keeping a sharp eye on the bottom line of growing businesses. The light lines fit easily into the modern workplace. AD is available with mid and low backrests, in a range of bright colors or black.

1 Choice of back heights

AD is available with a mid back or low back, to support individual preferences and different ways of working.

2 Adjustable seat height

Makes it easy for individuals to adjust the height to keep their feet on the floor and support a healthy posture.

2 Tension control

Adjusts backrest tension to suit individual physiques, for easy movement in different seating positions.

3 Fixed armrests

Provide good support for tackling different tasks. (option)

4 Synchro-tilt mechanism

Automatically adjusts to your physique, to optimize support as you sit back and recline.

4 Variable back lock

Allows individual users to set the optimum position of support when they lean back and relax.
